

Liberty has a new URL

You'll want to update your bookmark for Liberty!

Axos Advisor Services has a new URL link that can be used to access Liberty.

Copy and paste app.axosadvisorservices.com and bookmark it (or the redirect) to use going forward to access Liberty. The new link provides the same access, look-and-feel, and functionality of the old link, but with our new Axos Advisor Services name.

RIA branding is still in effect using this new URL. The legacy link, with the 'trustamerica' name, is still functional but will be sunset in 2022, so please begin using the new link at your earliest opportunity.

In early Q1 2022, the letters to new account owners will be updated to reflect this new Liberty url and will reference your firm's abbreviation

As always, please reach out to your Client Service Advocate with any questions.
