UPDATE: Combination of The Permal Group and EnTrust Capital - Shareholder Approval of New Subadvisory and Management Agreements

Permal Alternative Core Fund

Permal Alternative Select Fund

As communicated on May 2, 2016, the combination of the businesses of The Permal Group, of which Permal Asset Management LLC ("Permal"), the above noted funds' prior subadviser or manager, was a member and EnTrust Capital ("EnTrust") became effective and a new holding company, EnTrustPermal LLC, was formed for the combined businesses. As a result, the name of Permal changed to EnTrustPermal Management LLC ("EnTrustPermal").

On May 20, 2016, at a joint special meeting of shareholders:

-shareholders of Permal Alternative Core Fund approved a new subadvisory agreement between Legg Mason Partners Fund Advisor, LLC ("LMPFA"), the fund's manager, and EnTrustPermal; and

-shareholders of Permal Alternative Select Fund, approved a new management agreement between the fund's trust, on behalf of the fund, and EnTrustPermal.

The new subadvisory and management agreements supersede the interim subadvisory and management agreements that went into effect on May 2, 2016, when the combination of Permal and EnTrust became effective. The combination triggered the automatic termination provisions in the funds' prior subadvisory and management agreements, and the interim agreements allowed EnTrustPermal to serve as the subadvisor or manager to the funds until shareholders approved the new agreements. New subadvisory and trading agreements between EnTrustPermal and the subadvisers and trading advisor for Permal Alternative Select Fund also became effective on May 20, 2016 and supersede the interim agreements that went into effect with respect to the fund on May 2, 2016. The interim agreements allowed the subadvisers and trading advisor to serve the fund until shareholders approved the new management agreement.
