

Rydex Funds

Due to the extreme swings that have been happening daily in the market, Rydex has placed restrictions on trading. Effective immediately, we will no longer be allowing any cancellations of Rydex funds trades from Liberty.

If you have approved a trade in any Rydex Fund, feel it was a mistake and would now like to try and cancel the order, you will need to contact your Relationship Manager.

We will attempt to cancel but we cannot guarantee any trade can be cancelled once it has been approved.
